THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.8775 of 2006

ORDER:

This writ petition is directed against an order dated 22.03.2006 made by the 2nd respondent directing the petitioner to sell the quantity of levy sugar as specified therein.

It is the case of the petitioner that the respondents have no authority to fix the quantity of levy sugar and the proceedings impugned are contrary to the norms applied to other factories in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Be that as it may, on 26.04.2006 when the writ petition had come up for admission, this Court directed the petitioner to deliver 500 metric tons of levy sugar as allotted by Government of India as per the letter of Joint Collector dated 20.04.2006.

Now, the learned counsel for the petitioner filed a letter as well as the details of 500 metric tons of sugar supplied to Anantapur District, Civil Supplies Department, as per the letter dated 20.04.2006 of the Joint Collector, Ananthapur. There is no dispute as to the supplies made by the petitioner.

In view of the above, without going into the merits of the case, it is suffice to direct the 2nd respondent ito consider the representation purported to have been made by the petitioner on 17.04.2006 to the Government of India and to pass appropriate orders within a period of four (4) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, as per law. Till such time, the impugned order shall not be given effect to.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs.
